

Albert Einstein Academies embraces the highest standard of safety preparedness and will be hosting Active Shooter Response Certification Training (ALICE Training) on April 3-4, 2024. This certification is a 2-day train the trainer class on civilian, active shooter response options to enable you to empower others to survive violence. Attendees will range from law enforcement, local school officials, and area businesses leaders.

Please Click Here to register.

ALICE Training is a program that teaches proactive options-based strategies that empower individuals to participate in their own survival in the face of violence. ALICE Training is supported by published research, more than 4200 law enforcement agencies around the country and complies with the standard of care recommended by the Federal Department of Education for schools, the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), Department of Homeland Security (DHS), and the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA). Please visit alicetraining.com to learn more.

The 2-day course prepares you to teach others to be proactive and increase the survivability of individuals who encounter acts of violence.